RESOLUTION OF THE GOVERNING BODY OF THE KAIBAB BAND OF PAIUTE INDIANS

K-3-24

RESOLUTION SUPPORTING THE NATIONAL NATIVE AMERICAN SUPPLIER COUNCIL

- WHEREAS, the Kaibab Band of Paiute Indians (Tribe) is a sovereign, federally recognized Indian Tribe, organized pursuant to the Indian Reorganization Act of June 18, 1934, as amended, residing on the Kaibab Indian Reservation which was set apart for the Tribe by Executive Orders of June 11, 1913, and July 17, 1917, and operating in accordance with the Constitution of the Kaibab Band of Paiute Indians ("Constitution") and the Kaibab Paiute Tribal Code; and,
- WHEREAS, the Kaibab Paiute Tribal Council (Council) is the recognized governing body of the Tribe, responsible and authorized by the Constitution, Article VI, Section 1, and Article XIV to exercise all the powers possessed by the Band, subject to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and,
- WHEREAS, the Tribal Council has the authority, pursuant to Article VI Sections 1(f) and (h), to plan and approve all economic affairs and enterprises of the band and to promulgate ordinances and resolutions to promote and protect the peace, health, education, safety and welfare of the Tribe, its members, and all other persons within its jurisdiction; and,
- WHEREAS, tribally owned businesses believe that minority certification is advantageous as it helps them to be more competitive in the marketplace; and,
- WHEREAS, tribally owned businesses are unique from other minority owned businesses because they are owned by and benefit the tribe rather than the individual; and,
- WHEREAS, such certification of tribally owned businesses should be done by tribes, tribal citizens, and dependents because they understand tribal business and their relationship to their respective tribes; and,
- WHEREAS, a group of tribal business people have incorporated a Michigan non-profit corporation to fulfill this need called the "National Native American Supplier Council"; and,
- WHEREAS, the Tribal Council believes the purposes and goals of the National Native American Supplier Council to be important to promote economic diversification within Indian Country; now,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE TRIBAL COUNCIL OF THE KAIBAB BAND OF PAIUTE INDIANS OF THE KAIBAB INDIAN RESERVATION hereby supports the goals of the National Native American Supplier Council.
